Annexure A – Statement from Wilson Asset Management

Statement Accompanying Member Request

Unitholders must decide on HHY Fund's future now

Entities managed by Wilson Asset Management (International) Pty Limited and its related entities (WAME) have requisitioned a unitholders meeting to consider a resolution to wind up the HHY Fund. This is not a decision we have taken lightly.

On 29 July 2015 the HHY unitholders voted to appoint Aurora Funds Management Limited (Aurora) as the responsible entity of the HHY Fund. This change in responsible entity was instigated by Keybridge Capital Limited (Keybridge) (ASX: KBC) and was directed at avoiding a wind up of the HHY Fund.

Keybridge justified the change on the basis that unitholders could achieve a return superior to a wind up by drawing on the expertise of Aurora. It also asserted that unitholders wishing to exit their investment could still do so by selling their units on-market on ASX.

Loss of management expertise

The expertise to manage the HHY portfolio promoted to HHY unitholders is no longer at Keybridge.

Aurora was owned by Keybridge when it was appointed as the responsible entity of the HHY Fund. Although Keybridge sold Aurora and its funds management business on 1 July 2016, Keybridge will continue to manage the HHY Fund and Aurora will remain as the responsible entity.

Following this sale, the board of Keybridge has undergone a significant change. At an extraordinary general meeting of Keybridge's shareholders on Friday, 29 July 2016, 2 nominees of Bentley Capital Limited, Messrs Cato and Johnson were appointed to the board of Keybridge and Mr Andrew Moffat was removed as chairman. The previous Keybridge board had recommended that shareholders reject these changes. As a result, 50% of the Keybridge board has been appointed at the request of a 19.96% shareholder, a wholly owned subsidiary of Bentley Capital Limited (Bentley). Bentley is a listed investment company that is chaired by Farooq Khan. The performance of Bentley does not inspire confidence. Bentley shares are currently trading at a 34.5% discount to their last announced net tangible asset backing per share (based on $0.135, the price at which Bentley shares closed on ASX on 1 August 2016). Keybridge reported that Bentley has generated cumulative losses of approximately $1.262 million over the last 5 years.

We understand that the recent changes to the Keybridge board were supported by Australian Style Group. Australian Style Group is reported by Keybridge to hold 22.7% of the issued shares in Keybridge. Based on ASIC records, Australian Style Group is controlled by Mr John Bolton. Mr Bolton is the father of Nicholas Bolton, the former Keybridge managing director who in December 2015 was banned by ASIC from acting as a corporate director or being a company manager for three years.

In light of these changes, WAME believes that liquidation of the HHY Fund presents the best opportunity for unitholders to exit their investment at or close to its net tangible asset backing per unit (NTA).

Continuing discount to NTA

Since the change in responsible entity, HHY unitholders have been unable to sell their units on-market at or close to NTA.

Over the last 12 months Aurora implemented an on-market buy back program for up to 10% of the issued units in the HHY Fund.

The stated purpose of the buy back was to minimise the gap between the HHY Fund unit price and NTA and provide a mechanism for HHY unitholders to exit their investment at a price close to NTA backing per unit.

The buy back has not reduced the NTA gap and provided the liquidity expected. At the close of business on 1 August 2016 HHY units were trading at a 14.7% discount to the last stated NTA.

HHY Fund unitholders must decide

In light of the above WAME considers that it is important for HHY Fund unitholders to review the success of the HHY Fund and consider the prospects for the fund now.

A wind up provides all unitholders with the opportunity to exit their investment at or close to NTA.

An exit at NTA should be particularly welcome to HHY Fund unitholders who invested at a discount to NTA as it enables them to realise their investment at or close to NTA.
